Careers in Government

Is your ideal career one with the government? Do you want to work in intelligence or diplomacy?

Thursday, April 25th | 04:00 p.m. - 05:30 p.m. | Royce Hall Room 314

Career/internship opportunities in the government are diverse, exciting, and highly competitive. In a continually growing global society, the United States has placed great importance on hiring talented individuals to protect the country's interests and grow its diplomatic efforts.

Gain intel about various opportunities within different branches of the local, state, and federal government. Guest speakers will include representatives from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the U.S. Department of State, the U.S. Department of Defense, and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.
